Hi, Sister Dear!

I had to wait about 15 minutes to get this dumb thing for you, so you just better appreciate it! I'm the first one to sign this, too. I'll get as many people to sign as I can, but all the seniors are gone, so it's kinda hard.

We had some good times last year, and a lot of tears, too. This year is really a bummer without you. I keep thinking about all the good times we had, and I want them back! Remember all times I had to twiddle my thumbs? And when you always used to sit on the garbage can out front while Jerry & I kept each other warm? Those were the good old days, and they're gone forever, unfortunately. But think of the days we have ahead of us, when we can laugh together and cry together again. You're the best Sister Dear I have, and the best friend and ~~the~~ my most favorite person in the whole world. Let's keep it that way, forever, cause our relationship is very valuable. Keep the faith, Sister Dear, you'll always have me. Forever and ever.

Love ya lots,
Sister Dear ☺

Dedication

We, the Cinnabar Staff of 1973-74, dedicate this yearbook to Miss Cowley, Miss Perkins, and Mr. Morse who have been great friends as well as teachers to us all. They will truly be missed!

Superintendent's Message

SUPERINTENDENT BOB PIPES

Students and teachers at Middletown High School are uniquely blessed. You know one another!!! There may be no greater advantage for a "learner" and a "teacher" then, that they know each other well. What is called school, for the most part, is the interaction between people.

Of this 1973-1974 year, each of us will remember most, those friendships, those good times, which we spent with someone else. Learning takes place between people.

My dream for each of us, is that we will expect to excel in both learning and teaching. To excel one must work hard. Each graduating Senior will look back upon these times of personal triumph with deep satisfaction.

Those graduating who have gained self-understanding and self-control leave Middletown High School grateful to their friends and teachers. Those Seniors leaving who have known an excellence in their own performance, leave with a gift for life.

Senior Wills

I, Jim Donley, will my ability to pitch to Jim Powell.
I, Sherry Bracisco, will my muscles and ability to be a brick wall to Chriss Minudri and Susie Weatherwax for cheerleading next year.
I, Kari Galloway, will to my best friend Zoi, all the peace and happiness forever because she deserves it.
I, Jesse Hollingsworth will my ability to sit the bench in any sport to Carl Aldous.
I, Joyce Fritcher, will my thoughts and dreams to anyone who wants them.
I, Bob Weatherwax, will my ability to grow side burns to Dick Morse.
I, Teresa Parriott, will my hobby to all the girls in Middletown High that they will have as much fun as I have.
I, Brian Harper, will my athletic ability to Curtis Martin.
I, Ed Tolleson, will my ability to grow a beard to the administration and to Coach Graham, because it might make men out of them.
I, Bob Venezio, will my ability to drive slowly to Mr. Barton so he will live longer.
I, Steve Strickler, will my Toyota truck and it still runs down hill in neutral, to anybody, and I mean ANYBODY!
I, Millie Irwin, will my sexy little nose to Mr. Morse for obvious reasons.
I, Glenda Shope, will my ability to always be on time for class in the morning and after lunch to Julie Kies.
I, Jack Reed, will my ability to play football to Corky Schuyler.
I, Sandy Hoberg, will my driving ability to my sister Terry.
I, Mick Parrott, will my height to Billy Weatherwax.
I, Billy Blan, will my ability to party to John Barton.
I, Robin Loudermilk, will my ability to play basketball to David Fultz, so maybe he will be half as good as I was.
I, Gordon Pepoon, will my rusty beer can opener to Ken Moore and if he's smart enough he'll find out he doesn't need it because they have pull tops.
I, Terry Wood, will my height to Eddie Null.
I, Susan Carleton, will my overalls to Keith McKinley, and hope he has fun in the cornpatch.
I, Ted Stopper, will my ticket to the movie "Deliverance," to Eddie Null.
I, Cherie Clevenger, will my sunflower seeds to my brother Terry.
I, Tim Darby will be glad to leave M.U.S.D. HAPPILY!!!!!!!!

Hi Deb,
How's things up there? I hope allright.
I was sorry
to see ya go cause I think we were still buddys
anyhow, if ya
feel like writing
go right ahead.
Youre a great person. Stay happy. Love
Dave (Hoberg)

Deb
It was A/O/K of you Being with
In School. And I hope you are having fun in your new school

Hi Deb,
Well how's
it going? Do you like it up there? We miss you this year; telling all about the dumb stuff
boys, found any good ones yet?!
I don't know why I'm still going with Vernon;
living with him now still work out. Um because my mom's in S.F. in the hospital, I don't know when she'll be out. Um down sometime maybe to my wedding Ha Ha!
I wish ya good luck & happiness in the future!

Love Ginger
Steve Vernon "75"

Hi, Sister Dear,
Well here I am again signing your book. I guess I really should save room for everybody else, but your my best sister Dear, and I'm your best sister Dear, so I'm privileged! You know I think this year might not be so bad after all. I'll still miss you, of course, but at least now I've got Coop so I won't be lonely. We're pretty much together, more or less. you know what I'm jealous! Checker wrote more in your book than he did in mine! So did Sherel, come to think of it. So did a lot of people! Boy, sister Dear, I don't know about that! I guess that just goes to show how much more loved you are than me. Oh well, I get my fair share, too. Well, this isn't the place for letters, so I'll save the rest of this page for someone else. I guess its the last time I'll be signing your yearbook, unless I move to Reno. See ya!

Love ya always,
Sister Dear

Deb
Boy it sure is weird with you
not around to talk to.
I sure wish you were here.
The school this year is really a mess. I hope you are happy where you are and I hope we will always be friends. I wish you the very best in what ever you do.

Love Always Kathy "78"

Bye,
Sister
Dear

This is your Sister Dearest,
speaking. (writing)
Just want to say "Hi" and here I am again!
Im always here.
Whenever you need me, just think of me and my love will be there, even if Im not. You can count on it. - S. D.

Good Luck Deb!
